Adoption

“Adoption” is the term employed to signify the Town Council’s acceptance of a policy, strategy, etc.

For example: “The Town Council ADOPTED the Risk Management Policy”

Clear Days

“Clear days” must be completely clear days between two events – example, in defining the number of “clear days” between the issue of a Summons to a Meeting and the Meeting itself, they do not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.”

He/She, etc.

Use of the masculine gender in these Standing Orders is to be interpreted as also meaning all genders, as appropriate.

At the annual meeting of the Council it shall be the election of Chairman and Deputy-chairman will mean Mayor and Deputy Mayor.

Proposal

A “Proposal” is a proposal. A Proposal may be “moved” (i.e. put forward) in a number of ways, and may be subject to certain rules, as explained within these Standing Orders. If a Proposal is “passed” (i.e. approved by a majority vote), it may become either a Resolution or a Recommendation (see below).

Resolution

A “Resolution” is a decision. A Resolution may be made by the full Town Council or, under an appropriate delegated authority, by a Committee of the Council.

Recommendation

A “Recommendation” is normally a recommendation from a Committee or Working Group to the full Town Council (where the Committee does not have the delegated authority to make a Resolution OR when the Committee decides that a matter is of such import that the full Council should consider the matter). A Working Group may also make “Recommendations” to full Town Council or a Council Committee.

NOTE: The delegated authorities of Council Committees are specified within each Committee’s Terms of Reference.

HOW TO USE STANDING ORDERS

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. Standing orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject.

It is not possible for the standing orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for standing orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council's standing orders.

The standing orders do not include financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer. Financial regulations are available to councils in membership of NALC.

NOTES

Standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. It is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. Standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council's needs. It is NALC's view that all standing orders will generally be suitable for councils.

For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in standing orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights.

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a Proposals on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.

- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own proposal if agreed by the meeting. If a proposal has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
