

Arundel Community Awards 2025

Categories

- Arundel Community Award - an individual (or a couple) who has made a sustained and positive contribution to life in Arundel. Up to three Community Recognition certificates may be presented to people who are nominated but do not receive the Arundel Community Award Cup.
- Young Person's Community Commendation - awarded to a young person under the age of 19 for their contribution to the community.
- Arundel Community Group Award— awarded to a voluntary group judged to have made the greatest contribution to the community in the last two years

Eligibility criteria

- Nominations must be made by people living, working or volunteering in Arundel
- Nominees must be for people who volunteer in Arundel
- Contributions must be voluntary and sustained. If a nominee has been nominated for their role in the course of paid employment, the nomination must explain how the nominee has gone above and beyond the duties of their employed role.
- Arundel Town Council Officers and Councillors would only be eligible in the year after their employment/appointment ceased.
- Past recipients of Arundel Community Awards are not normally eligible to receive the award again.
- Past recipients of a Community Recognition certificate are eligible for consideration for the Arundel Community Award, but would not normally be considered for a further Community Recognition certificate unless their contribution was for a significantly different volunteering role or project
